

EXEMPTION PROCESS GUIDELINES

Why apply for an exemption?

1. Players who are unable to train on a regular basis due to work or study commitments can apply for an exemption which if approved means they are eligible to be selected as per Selection Criteria.
2. A full or part exemption can be applied for. A player may not be able to attend any training's or may only be able to attend when work/study permits. A player may also only be able to attend one of the training venues (Blyth or Snowtown) due to distance and travel time.
3. Students applying for an exemption are encouraged to attend trainings during school holidays.

How to write an exemption

1. Address a letter to the Secretary stating the reason for requesting the exemption from trainings.
2. State which trainings you can't attend and which ones you will be able to attend if any.
3. Give exemption letter to the Secretary who will take to the next Committee Meeting for a decision.
4. Approved applicants should supply their coach with a list of trainings/games they can't attend.

Approval Process

1. Exemption Letters are considered and voted on at BSNC Committee Meetings.
2. Decisions are provided back within one week of the meeting stating if approved, denied and may contain recommendations such as attending trainings during school holidays or advising to attend Adelaide based trainings.
3. A list of all approved exemptions is then supplied to the Selection Committee (Coaches) for consideration when selecting teams as per BSNC Selection Policy.
